Aid from Quex to the Calais!

During the week all the donations of food and toiletries which had been donated through the giving heart at the front of the altar, have already been sent over to Calais, to the thousands of men women and children living in terrible conditions in the Camp called the Jungle!. Quex Road was one of the first parishes to respond to the appeal. Thank you so much!
Don't forget to take your sticker this weekend.

Thank You

My sincere thanks to all who congratulated me and offered best wishes on the occasion of my Golden Jubilee of Priesthood. Thank you also for the donations which were gratefully received. Everything that was done for me on the evening was greatly appreciated. Holy Mass has been offered for all your intentions.....Fr Paschal Dillon

The Voice of God's Call

Are you facing an important life decision? You could join one of our Samuel or Compass groups to help you listen to the voice of God in your life and make a good decision. Samuel Groups are monthly groups for single adults aged 18-35 and Compass groups are for people thinking about consecrated life. Work in your group at knowing God better and discover his call for you. Open day Sunday 9th October in Central London.
For more information on vocations, please speak to Fr John McFadden OMI.

Fr John McFadden OMI

Fr John would like to take this opportunity to express his sincere gratitude for the warm welcome he has received. Fr John is now resident in the Oblate Community and is available for those who wish to explore their faith and where God may be calling them. Please feel free to speak with Fr John or make an appointment through the Parish Office.

Missionaries of Charity

After the visit by the sisters last weekend they wrote the following letter.

Thank you so much for your warm welcome to Mother and the Sisters. Please keep us and our poor in your prayers that we faithfully continue the work of Jesus entrusted to Saint Teresa of Calcutta and to each one of us. Mother would always say "Calcutta is everywhere, very close to us, even in our families" Let us continue to pray for one another. Strive to be holy!

The Missionaries of Charity.

LOURDES PILGRIMAGE

Fr Michael, Fr John and Fr Oliver will travel on Saturday by air with 40 other Pilgrims from the Parish on this year's Oblate Pilgrimage to Lourdes. Fr Paschal's group left on Thursday morning. 37 from this group are travelling by road and sea and will join all the other Pilgrims in Lourdes on Saturday. We pray for them that they will all return with renewed faith and that they may all experience the miracle of our Lady of Lourdes. They have all promised to pray for us.

Life is a pilgrimage. Each moment is to be lived in depth, because each moment contains God, hidden within it.
