STANDING IN SOLIDARITY AT LONDON BRIDGE

Bishop John Sherrington, representing Cardinal Vincent Nichols, joined 100 imams for a vigil by London Bridge to remember those who died in the terrorist atrocity last weekend and to stand in solidarity with Muslims, Christians and Jews as they condemn all violence and declare that love will ultimately triumph over hatred.

A public statement signed by 500 British imams was read out condemning extremism and terrorist violence. They also urged people to report to the authorities anyone expressing support or sympathy with violent extremism.

They reiterated their commitment to not accepting terrorists in life or death by refusing to perform funeral prayers for terrorists

Christ has no body now on earth but yours:

No hands but yours;

No feet but yours:

Yours are the eyes, through which to look out

Christ's compassion to the world;

Yours are the feet

With which he is to go about doing good;

Yours are the hands with which he is to bless men now.
