Follow in Love

The first big moment of vocation is baptism. The anointing of chrism at baptism might be called the anointing for vocation.

The baptismal vocation is for witness, love and service. This is expressed in ways in which people live out their baptism in married life, single life—and within the single life, may be religious life or priesthood.

Our active witness is to the life and values of Jesus in our lives. Teaching is not itself a vocation, for example, but the way we teach is a way of living out our vocation. It is the same with many of the helping professions and employments, Being a good neighbour can be a living out of our vocation.

We witness to love in marriage, in family, extended family and in friendship. Any love is a sharing in the love of God. In the moments of unselfish love in any relationship we are living out our vocation. When we love, we are doing God's will!

We witness to service in the wider world in our care for the poor and in welcoming the stranger. In a place of silence, let the words 'Come, follow me' echo in your mind and heart.

Lord be with me, as I offer myself in partnership with you to work in your world.
